We mean business

WINNER OF SILVER AWARD FOR BEST MAGAZINE COVER DESIGN AT ASIA MEDIA AWARDS

Under the visionary leadership of His Majesty Sultan Qaboos bin Said, the Sultanate of Oman has successfully achieved the progress of several generations in just 45 years.

Through heavy investment in infrastructure and development, the country has solidified its position as an economic stalwart on the regional scale, and a peaceful political moderator on the global spectrum.

His Majesty the Sultan has consistently led Oman forward with his commitment to rapid yet respectful development. Oman has a global reputation of being a unique mix of modernity and tradition: A reputation that has been crafted meticulously over the last half decade.

Oman has continued to defy stereotypes and exceed expectations through its thriving business environment and contemporary outlook. Oman's business families frequently feature as some of the most powerful families in the world, proving that the country has become a global model for national progress and business advancement.

In the digital age, communication and technology are the nucleus of any economy, and are at the core of progress. Oman has moved seamlessly into the digital era providing world-class products and services to its people. A healthy telecommunications industry will contribute to the growth of other national industries and TeO is proud to play a small part in this development.

From a country that was relatively unknown, to one that is globally spoken of in reverent terms, the transformation of Oman has been truly remarkable. The future looks bright with His Majesty the Sultan's vision and guidance lighting the way.
